Reasons For Allowance

Claims 1 – 20 are allowable.

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: in combination with other limitations of the claims the prior arts made of record fail to suggest a method (a computer program product) for encoding digital image data representing a plurality of initial pixels, each of initial pixel having a coordinate, the method having a plurality of predetermined image types, each image type having a preassigned one of a plurality of quantization step-size sets comprising the step of shrinking each of subband coefficients by an adjustment that is a function of respective the quantization step size sets of the coordinates of respective the ones of resultant pixels to provide corresponding adjusted coefficients.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. Berger (US patent Number 5,497,435) discloses an apparatus and method for encoding and decoding digital signals.
4. Chui et al. (US Patent Number 5,600,373) discloses a method and apparatus for video image compression and decompression using boundary spline wavelets.

5. Hoffberg et al. (US patent Number 5,901,246) discloses an ergonomic man-machine interface incorporating adaptive pattern recognition based control system.
6. Zador (US patent Number 6,125,201) discloses a method and apparatus and system for compressing data.
7. Chou et al. (US patent Number 6,470,469) discloses a reconstruction of missing coefficients of overcomplete linear transforms using projections onto convex sets.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
